There is, in Mr. Sugimura's opinion, no hope of a lasting peace until with friends at Fort Memle, by the spirit of justice and law, so that all disputes between nations -Among Rodman ladies shopping may be settled not by force of arms, the writer, the League of Nations, ed at the Poland home here that the which he urges America to join in preference to her as yet unborn and sibly a boax. intried Association of Nations.

Though in sympathy with Ameria's good intentions, Mr. Sugimura fails to understand why Far Eastern problems particularly should be brought up for discussion. Trouble is likely to occur in any part of the world, Europe or South America, and yet no consideration is to be given to that. But putting this on one side, he says the most important thing is to explain clearly the exact connection between the question of armaments and that of the Far East and the Pacific. It stands to reason that the subjects to be discussed must be closely connected with the the English financier, who recently plan of effecting a limitation of arritorial rights and the rights of The young reporter, possessing spheres of influence. KEEP SCHOOL GROUNDS CLEAR

(By Associated Pives.)
Lakeland, Oct. 21.—Students at Southern College when that instiution opens here, will not be able to step across the campus and go in the "barrel," neither will they be able to work up a thirst by eating peanuts and assuage it by soft drinks.

It all came about by the desire of the city council that the section of the city around the college be strictly a civic pride, and they placed a ban on the establishment of any of the small stores familiar to college surroundings. The ordinance recently adopted, especially directed at pressing clubs, peanut stands, and soft drink venders, prohibits the building of any kind of a store within three blocks of the university grounds.
